The GANAS Graduate Pathways project has been designed to unleash the potential of UCSC as a public Hispanic-Serving Research Institution (HSRI) by implementing eight project interventions aligned with two areas of focus along the academic pipeline: 1) Graduate Student Pathway Interventions; and 2) Graduate Degree Completion Programs.

Interventions are strategically positioned to overcome institutional barriers and equity gaps that impede the academic success of Latinx, low-income, and graduate students of color in the areas of preparation, retention, advancement to candidacy, and degree completion.

Institutional Gaps
1. Lack of Representation
2. Writing Challenges
3. Non-Academic Barriers
4. Advancement to Candidacy/Degree Attainment

Grant Objectives
1. Increase the number of Latinx graduate students enrolled at UCSC by 35%
2. Increase Latinx graduate students' writing proficiency by 3%
3. Increase Latinx graduate students' sense of belonging by 12%
4. Increase graduate degree completion for Latinx, low-income and graduate students of color by 3%

GRADUATE SCHOOL PATHWAY INTERVENTIONS

Summer Introduction to Undergraduate Research Program (SIURP)
The 2023 SIURP summer residential program served 22 students (16 UCSC; 6 CSUMB). Throughout the two weeks of the program students engaged in a series of workshops, presentations and events led by 5 graduate student mentors to introduce them to research methods, graduate school pathways, and research opportunities at UCSC.

Navigating Graduate School Application Process Course Series
The second part of the series (MERR 35B) launched in Fall 2022 with 9 students completing the course. The curriculum focused in helping students further explore graduate school programs and prepare their application materials for submission. The first part of the series (MERR 35A) resumed in its second year of instruction in Spring 2023 serving 23 students.

Careers in the Creative Economy Course
This course (ART 177) was implemented for its second year serving 28 students. The class instructor hosted 9 guest speakers in creative fields to provide students with opportunities for networking and teachings about the possibilities of careers in the arts.

"... Listening to Davidra “Vee” Jackson talk about her experience finding her path after UCSC was super refreshing and uplifting to hear as someone who is set to graduate soon. I relate to her feeling confused as an art major on what to pursue after college, and the fact that she was able to find a career she loves was motivational and reassuring to me.” - ART177 Student, Spring 2023

GRADUATE DEGREE COMPLETION PROGRAMS

Graduate Student Counselor (GSC)
This year the GSC served 38 unique graduate students in 75 holistic counseling appointments. These appointments addressed academic and non-academic barriers that impede transition and degree completion such as financial and basic needs challenges, making connections to campus and community, and balancing familial/personal responsibilities, among others.

Doctoral Summer Bridge (DSB) Program
During this year’s program, 3 graduate student mentors developed and led culturally-relevant events and workshops to support 14 new students in their transition to graduate school. Dr. Genevive Bjorn, Higher Ed Learning Coach, presented on her CERIC method for graduate reading strategies, supported by DSAS Student Success & Equity.

VOCES Graduate Student Writing Center
This year VOCES continued offering writing tutoring sessions led by trained writing tutors who altogether served 57 graduate students through 314 one-on-one consultations. Additionally, VOCES launched Drafting Stages with 4 guest speakers, a series aimed to demystify the writing process as an evolving and non-linear process while providing practical writing tips to graduate students.

Graduate First-Year Experience (FYE) Course
The second FYE course (HIST 200B) was co-taught by 6 faculty in Winter 2023, 3 graduate students completed the course.

Latinx Initiative for Future Teachers (LIFT)
This year the program supported 16 Education Masters/Credential students as part of LIFT Scholars, 12 funded by GANAS Graduate and 4 funded by the Education Department ($2,000 scholarships). Students were further supported with specialized workshops to prepare for credentialing exams and mentorship from local educators. The program also hosted a speaker series featuring two guest speakers who shared about their journey and experiences as teachers of color, and the importance of culturally sensitive pedagogy.
